421st Medical Battalion (Multifunctional)

Background

The 421st Medical Battalion (Multifunctional) provides scalable, flexible, and modular medical mission command, health service support, force health protection, and medical synchronization of assigned and attached medical forces in support of U.S. Army Europe and 7th Army, or any directed global contingency operation.

Our multi-faceted capabilities include Level I and II combat health support, combat operational stress control, preventive medicine, medical logistics, and veterinary services in support of Unified Land Operations.

The headquarters and supporting units are located in Smith Barracks, Germany.

Deployment Support

Elements from 421st Medical Battalion (Multifunctional) constantly maintain a deployment readiness posture. Soldiers of 421st Medical Battalion (Multifunctional) have completed tours of duty in Afghanistan and Iraq, while simultaneously supporting missions throughout Europe and Africa, including disaster relief efforts. The 421st Medical Battalion (Multifunctional) continues to support Operation Enduring Freedom, Kosovo Force, European Command, Africa Command, Central Command, and U.S. Army Europe.
